The Holy Vedas!

The Rig Ved has 10,589 verses.

The Yajur Ved has 1,975 verses.

The Sam Ved has 18,75 verses.

The Arthaved has 5,977 verses.

Total of 20,416 verses.

The 4 Vedas are regarded as revealed knowledge.

We are proud of this most ancient heritage and it is the most astonishing accomplishment to have preserved them to this day in spite of all the hardships in history.

In Vedic poetry the tiny soul and the supreme self are both taken as 2 birds (Suparna) mutual friends and companions.

The 4 vedas are the pillars of the Sanatan Dharm and invoke One God!

The vedic Sanatan dharm is based on Shraddha, Tap (austerity), Daya, Yagya (selfless service), Daan (generosity), Shanti, Mitrata (friendship), Abhaya (fearlessness) and Saumanasam (mutual understanding).
